MASTER'S MESSAGE

Brethren:

Just back from attending Grand Lodge, Ralph Saroyan, Phil Lewis, Al Dadmun, Arch Addington, and I are inspired after visiting our guests Rachael Brown and Grey Newark at the Masonic Home in Union City. They are ever pleased to see and chat with us and wished that more would come and see them.

Rachel gave us a guided tour through the home and remarked that she hoped they would never sell it and build another one, that this was her home in a beautiful setting and with a beautiful view. We are their lodge and they so tell the world that all should know.

I would like to thank P. M. Leonard Gottner for taking over for us at home while we were in San Francisco. From the remarks I received he did an outstanding job at the two funerals he performed for our late brethren, Carol Baird and Harvey W. Boyden. We are indebted to men like this who so willingly give of their time.

The next two months are going to be busy for the lodge and its officers. Officers with examinations, November 11th Past Masters night with a dinner, Official visit of our inspector Sam Pavlovich, 50 year button presentations, Thanksgiving dinner with our Dates, Election of 1972 officers, newcology service, XMAS party for all especially children, plus degree work.

Look to the calendar and to the paper for dates and time.

Fraternally
George W. Pope, Master

AN EDITORIAL NOTE

My Brothers, the editor wishes to apologize for the late publication of this "Las Palmian". He is very much aware of the importance placed upon it by many of the Brethren. Unfortunately, personal affairs have upset planned schedules. Our great fraternity and our warm and friendly lodge are doing an outstanding job of guidance and brotherly love. It is sincerely hoped that future editors of the Las Palmian will be so imbued with love for the fraternity and our fellowman that their feelings and the feelings of others can be through his interpretation brought to those who read our publication. Masonry needs interpretation. The precepts and tentets, of the Masonic order are taught through symbolism and alligory, as are all great movements that have survived the ravages of time. There is no substitute for honesty, truth, love, compassion and forthrightness. Masonry is the guide and teacher, believe in it, live it, and gain wisdom and through it all, peace.

The Editor

LET US GIVE THANKS

Let us give thanks! For the old sweet fashions of Nature, for the ritual of its seasons, for the wonder of seed-time, summer and autumn harvest; for the stores of material good for our use and blessing; for the flowers of Divine grace and human kindness along the way; for the Kindly Light that leads us, for the love that heals our hurts and the mercy that lifts us when we fall.

-Joseph Fort Newton
